Why you should exhibit…

The National Meeting provides your company an opportunity to connect, learn and engage with over 1600 psychoanalysts, mental health clinicians, educators, scientists, researchers, scholars, and students.

The community of the exhibit hall provides attendee’s opportunities for scholarly advancement, personal connection and professional development. Join this community and put your brand face to face with these highly educated and engaged decision makers from around the world.

Exhibiting, advertising and sponsoring with APsaA is the perfect way for you to reach this targeted audience of mental health professionals.

2020 NATIONAL MEETING FINAL PROGRAM

The American Psychoanalyst (TAP), the quarterly magazine of the Association. TAP reports on news of the organization, events, meetings, reports from committees, elections, announcements and appointments. Political issues and controversies, innovations and initiatives are covered extensively. To this end, there are regular columns from the president, technology notes, and interviews with key members of the organization.

The second mandate of TAP is coverage of issues concerning American psychoanalysis as a practice and technique. Societal and government issues that concern psychoanalysis are featured as well as reports from developments in international psychoanalysis. Each edition also includes an in-depth section on a topic of special interest as well as regular columns on politics and public policy, and on psychoanalytic science.

Please call Wylie Tené at the APsaA National Office for deadline and specification questions: 212.752.0450 ext. 29

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN PSYCHOANALYTIC

Journal of the American Psychoanalytic Association (JAPA), published bi-monthly. JAPA explores the critical topics in psychoanalysis today including clinical issues and innovations, new methodologies, education and professional development issues, interdisciplinary studies, and emerging theories and techniques.

Please call Wylie Tené at the APsaA National Office for deadline and specification questions: 212.752.0450 ext. 29
